

I first met Larry when Teri invited him to visit us in Blackfoot ID. It was pretty obvious he and Teri had already made a commitment to each other. We knew from the beginning that he loved her and had zeroed in on becoming her one and only.

Larry really has a wonderful sense of humor. He once made the remark among a group of friends and family that if his mother-in-law wasn't present he would tell a good joke. I immediately spoke up and said that if he knew a good mother-in-law story he would tell it to me and we would both enjoy it.

I have only been present at the birth of one of my grandchildren. When Jason was born I remember very clearly that as soon as he realized the baby was a boy Larry lifted both hands above his head, gave a strong punch in the air, then floated (I'm sure his feet did not touch the floor) to the head of the bed and gave Teri a loving kiss for a job well done. There is no doubt in my mind there was equal joy when each of their children was born, but that is the one I witnessed and it is a very fond memory.

He has always been a fun person to be around, helpful, congenial and willing to join in with group plans and activities, helpful with family and friends' projects, a whiz on the computer and with tax returns and did I mention always helpful (am I sounding like a proud mother-in-l? Well I am)

I am grateful you are my son-in-law and that you and Teri chose each other as Eternal Companions.

Love you,

Merle

Hey Larry,

I don't really have a specific memory of you other than the day you married Teri. The one was major. I am so glad you and Teri found each other and added to my life by entering out family. I didn't realize there was a whole there until you filled it.

The thing I like the most about you is your dry sense of humor. It sometimes takes a while to realize that you got me but I usually come around to it. By that time you are probably gone. I do enjoy that.

Hope your birthday is great.

Love you,
Donna

So the thing I remember most about Larry is the fact that I have always thought that if I ever got married, (ya'll can stop laughing now), I would want a husband like Larry. He really impressed me the first time we were all together for Thanksgiving and he got up and helped clean the kitchen and put the food away after we ate. I remember him always being willing to help around the house and I love that about him.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY UNCLE LARRY!!!

Love,

Krista

Larry,

The memory that sticks with me the most is when we would always play chess together. You taught me so much and I really enjoyed that time.

Hope you have a Happy Birthday!

DJ

Larry,

You have always been so kind to me and I think you are an amazing man. I can't think of any particular memory, it seems like a life time since I've seen you and your family. I miss you all.
